Cubs in the Community

The Chicago Cubs community activities and charitable contributions reflect a commitment to be a good neighbor and corporate citizen. These efforts help improve the lives of children and families across our city and surrounding areas. With the help of a great team of players, front office staff, spouses and corporate partners, the Cubs are working to be the best in the game, on and off the field.

The Cubs have invested in neighborhood improvement activities and committed to increasing the team's charitable donations and year-round service involvement. Chicago Cubs Charities aims to increase access to sports opportunities and to improve health, fitness and education for those at risk.

The Cubs have also continued our valuable partnership with Cubs Care, a fund of the Robert R. McCormick Foundation, to provide financial support to quality non-profit organizations in Chicago and beyond.

In 2013, the organization's goal is to raise the bar even further. Fundraising events for 2013 include:

Working in the Lake View Community

The Cubs work hard to communicate with those who live and work in the communities around the ballpark. The team actively participates in preserving and enhancing the quality of life for Lake View residents, as well as providing events and activities contribute to the unique and diverse fabric of the neighborhood and generate increased business for the area.

Those who live in Lake View can sign up for our neighborhood newsletter, Cubs Community Connection, at www.cubs.com/neighbors.

Lending a Helping Hand
In 2012, more than 7,600 institutions and organizations received tickets or Cubs memorabilia as charitable contributions to fundraising auctions and raffles. Through these donations, an estimated $880,000 was generated for non-profit fundraisers.

To learn more or make a request, visit www.cubs.com/donations.

Youth and Special Needs Baseball
McCormick Foundation's Cubs Care grants support organizations committed to bringing quality sports programming to the children of Chicago. Each year, more than 13,000 children and young adults participate in sports programs supported by Cubs Care grants.

Programs funded through Cubs Care include:

Cubs Care Rookie League— A partnership with the Chicago Park District, Rookie League is an introductory league for six to 12-year-olds. The league has grown to 96 locations with 521 teams across Chicago. Each year, more than 8,000 children from neighborhoods throughout the city can participate in the program free of charge.

Inner City Youth Baseball— Inner City Youth Baseball provides recreational activities for more than 360 kids ages nine to 12 who live in Chicago Housing Authority developments and scattered site housing throughout Chicago. The program is operated in partnership with the Chicago Park District. It also helps encourage participation of African Americans in baseball by exposing African American youth to the game.

Reviving Baseball in the Inner Cities (RBI)— The Reviving Baseball in Inner Cities (RBI) program of the Union League Boys & Girls Clubs of Chicago reaches approximately 300 mostly minority teens, ages 13 to 18, living in some of the poorest communities in Chicago. Grants typically cover all programs costs so the league can provide equipment, uniforms and instruction at no cost to the participants. The Cubs RBI All-Star team appeared in the RBI World Series in 2011.

RBI Girls Fast Pitch Softball— The RBI Girls Fast Pitch Softball program aims to expose girls, ages 11 through 14, to competitive league play. The program was piloted in 2010 with four teams and was so well received the league has now expanded to eight teams with more than 100 participants. A grant awarded by Cubs Care helped create more opportunities for young girls interested in softball.

Girls In The Game— Girls in the Game provides and promotes sports and fitness, health education and leadership development to enhance the overall well-being of girls. Girls in the Game uses sports to teach girls the important life lessons of teamwork, voice, leadership, confidence and healthy choices. Grants from Cubs Care help expand the organization's direct service and provide increased weekend and school break programming.

Special Recreation Programs— The Chicago Park District's Special Recreation programs are geared towards helping children and adults with special needs. These programs include Beep Baseball for the visually impaired, Buddy Baseball for the physically challenged, Deaf & Hard of Hearing softball for the hearing impaired and Alternative Athletic Conference (AAC) softball for those with learning/behavioral problems.

Wheelchair Cubs— The Rehabilitation Institute of Chicago (RIC) provides adults with disabilities the opportunity to play competitive wheelchair softball. In addition to supporting the wheelchair softball team, the Cubs also support the RIC Caring for Kids program which provides noncompetitive introductory sports and recreation programs for children with physical disabilities in the greater Chicagoland area.

RIC used the Cubs Care grants to support its competitive wheelchair softball teams and fund two adaptive summer camps in 2012 to help promote independence. A Cubs Care grant helped create Illinois' first-ever public wheelchair baseball stadium in 2003.

Reaching Out to the Latino and African American Communities

The Cubs are committed to connecting with the Hispanic and African-American communities in Chicago.

African American Outreach
In addition to the team's efforts to increase the participation of African American youth in baseball, the Cubs are stepping up their efforts to strengthen relationships in the African American community.

In 2012, the Cubs were presenting sponsors of the Chicago Football Classic and donated hundreds of tickets to inner-city youth. The Cubs also participated in the annual Bud Billiken back-to-school parade and hosted the entire Bud Billiken Royal Court during a pregame ceremony at the ballpark last summer.

In September, the Cubs hosted several congregations and pastors from South Side churches for an inaugural "Church Day" at the Friendly Confines.

Last winter, team officials joined Ald. Carrie Austin, 34th Ward, Ald. Michelle Harris, 8th Ward and Ald. Latasha Thomas, 17th Ward to donate toys to hundreds of families on the city's south side and in Englewood. The Cubs also donated 1,000 winter caps to children at Salem Baptist Church.

Hispanic Outreach

The Cubs relationships with Spanish language publications and broadcasts, baseball programs and charitable organizations serving Hispanic communities throughout the area, and around the world, are growing. Among them:

Harrison Park
The Cubs and Chicago Cubs Charities partnered with Cristo Rey Jesuit High School, the Pritzker Traubert Family Foundation and 25th Ward Alderman Danny Solis on a new state of the art, all-weather athletic field at the Chicago Park District's Harrison Park in the Pilsen community. The field will be used for youth athletic programs, adult softball leagues and Cristo Rey Jesuit High School students.

ILAC Centro Educacion para la Salud Integral, Dominican Republic
Chicago Cubs Charities contributed $25,000 in 2012 to fund diabetes research and treatment, support a surgical recovery room in the Dominican Republic and to provide support for schools and education-related facilities. Cubs owners Tom, Pete and Todd Ricketts visited the facility in January 2011 and 2012.

LosCubs.com
The Cubs launched a Spanish language Web site in April 2007, Loscubs.com. The site provides Spanish-speaking fans with up-to-date news, team information, game recaps and exclusive player profiles and stories, all in Spanish.

On The Radio
In 2013, more than 40 Cubs games will be broadcast in Spanish on WRTO-AM 1200, and made available on television via SAP.

CUBS OWNERSHIP HISTORY

On August 21, 2009, the Ricketts family signed a definitive agreement with Tribune Company to acquire a 95 percent interest in the Chicago Cubs National League Baseball Club, Wrigley Field and Tribune Company's approximately 25 percent interest in Comcast SportsNet (CSN) in a transaction valued at $845 million. The Ricketts family has management control of the joint venture as its 95 percent owner. Tribune retains a five-percent ownership interest.

On October 6, 2009, Major League Baseball owners unanimously approved the transaction by a vote of 29-0.

When the transaction closed October 27, 2009, the Ricketts family became only the eighth owner of the Chicago Cubs since the franchise's inception 133 years prior in 1876 when William A. Hulbert began as the club's first owner. Prior to the Ricketts family, the Cubs had only two owners in the last 90 years, including 62 years of family ownership starting in 1919 when William Wrigley, Jr. purchased the franchise. In 1932, Philip K. Wrigley took control upon his father's death. In 1977, William Wrigley took over the club following the passing of his father, Philip, before selling to the Tribune Company four years later in 1981.

Below is a complete list of Chicago Cubs owners prior to the Ricketts family:

1882	Albert Spalding and John Walsh ... Spalding — the former player, sporting goods tycoon and team president — and Walsh took over after the death of William A. Hulbert
1905	Charles Murphy ... Murphy's $125,000 purchase price was financed by Cincinnati Times-Star owner Charles Taft
1914	Charles Taft ... Taft bought the Cubs from Charles Murphy
1916	Charles Weeghman ... a team owner in the defunct Federal League, Weeghman and nine others purchased the Cubs from Taft and moved the club to Weeghman Park at the corner of Clark and Addison
1919	Wrigley family ... William Wrigley Jr. purchased control of the team from Weeghman and renamed Weeghman Park to Cubs Park. In 1926, the ballpark's name was changed to Wrigley Field. Philip K. Wrigley took over in 1932 and William Wrigley took control in 1977.
1981	The Tribune Company ... the Tribune's purchase of the Cubs and the Friendly Confines from the Wrigley family ended the longest continuous operation of a franchise by the same family in one city.

KYUJI FUJIKAWA'S CAREER TRANSACTIONS

2012 – Signed by Cubs 12/7 as a non-drafted free agent to two-year contract (scouts: Paul Weaver and Steve Wilson)

CUBS FROM JAPAN

Prior to 2013, the Cubs had two Japanese-born players in their 137-season history, both outfielders: Kosuke Fukudome and So Taguchi.

Fukudome made his Cubs debut, March 31, 2008 vs. Milwaukee (went 3-for-3 with a double, home run and three RBI), becoming the first Japanese-born Cub. He went on to appear in 513 games for Chicago, spanning four seasons from 2008-11. Taguchi played in six games for Chicago during the 2009 campaign.

At least three other Japanese-born major leaguers have spent time in the Cubs system, but did not play in a big league game as a Chicago Cub. Steven Randolph (born in Okinawa) was acquired by the Cubs from the Diamondbacks in mid-January 2005, but was released in April of that year. Keith McDonald (born in Kokosuka) signed a minor league contract with the Cubs in November 2002, he played six games for the Cardinals in 2000 and 2001. Hideo Nomo was in the Cubs minor league system for three weeks in April 1999. Ken Kadokura was signed to a minor league contract with an invitation to Spring Training in 2009, but did not appear with the Cubs in the regular season.

Heading into 2013 Spring Training, pitcher Kyuji Fujikawa signed a two-year major league deal with Chicago, including a vesting option for 2015. Additionally, pitcher Hisanori Takahashi signed a minor league deal with the Cubs, including an invite to major league Spring Training.

GARZA'S NO-HIT EFFORT

Matt Garza's no-hitter, July 26, 2010, vs. Detroit, made him only the third pitcher in the last 45 years to face the minimum 27 batters in a no-hitter that was not a perfect game, joining Philadelphia's Terry Mulholland in 1990 and the White Sox Mark Buehrle in 2007 ... other notes from Garza's no-hitter:

- It was the fifth, and final, no-hitter in 2010 - that was the most in one season since 1991, when seven were thrown.
- Garza's no-hitter came just 31 days (and 10 home games) after Arizona's Edwin Jackson threw the first no-hitter in Tropicana Field history ... prior to that, 1,006 games had been played at the Trop without a no-hitter.
- Opposing starter, Detroit's Max Scherzer, held the Rays hitless until there were two outs in the bottom of the sixth, when Matt Joyce hit a grand slam ... just six weeks before on June 13 at Wrigley Field, neither the White Sox Gavin Floyd nor the Cubs Ted Lilly allowed a hit until the bottom of the seventh.
- Prior to Garza, the longest no-hit bids in Tampa Bay history were 7.2 innings, by Dewon Brazelton (June 25, 2004 vs. Florida) and Tony Saunders (April 22, 1999 vs. Baltimore).

The Cubs reached three million fans on September 2, faster than any other season in franchise history, as that night's crowd of 39,846 vs. the Houston Astros brought the Cubs and Wrigley Field beyond the three million mark in the club's 74th home date of 2008, surpassing the previous record of 75 home dates to three million fans in 2007.

JUNIOR LAKE'S CAREER TRANSACTIONS

2007 – Signed by Cubs as a non-drafted free agent 2/2 (scouts: Jose Serra and Marino Encarnacion)

TRIPLE PLAYS – LAST TIME IT HAPPENED

The Cubs have been involved in 76 triple plays since 1876, turning 40 and hitting into 36. The Cubs have hit into the last three triple plays they've been involved in (most recently May 14, 2000, at Montreal).

On May 10, 1997, in San Francisco, the Cubs turned their last triple play. The Giants' Stan Javier faced Amaury Telemaco in the fifth inning with Kirk Rueter on second base and Darryl Hamilton on first. Javier hit a fly ball to short center field, with second base umpire Bob Davidson invoking the infield fly rule. The ball dropped in, and both baserunners were thrown out attempting to advance (center fielder Brian McRae to third baseman Jose Hernandez to second baseman Ryne Sandberg).

The last triple play turned at Wrigley Field was by San Francisco on May 8, 1998 (first baseman Charlie Hayes to shortstop Rich Aurilia). The last time the Cubs turned a triple play at The Friendly Confines occurred June 2, 1983, vs. Pittsburgh – when Pirates pitcher Rick Rhoden hit into an around-the-horn triple killing (third baseman Ron Cey to second baseman Ryne Sandberg to first baseman Bill Buckner).

On May 30, 1927, shortstop Jimmy Cooney turned the only unassisted triple play in Cubs history. In the fourth inning of the Cubs' game in Pittsburgh, Cooney caught Paul Waner's line drive, stepped on second base to retire Lloyd Waner, then tagged Clyde Barnhart off first.

THERE'S NO PLACE LIKE HOME

The Cubs won 16 consecutive games Jon Lieber started at Wrigley Field from May 24, 2001-May 6, 2002. He had a personal 13-0 mark over the 16-start span.

The stretch is tied for the longest winning span for a pitcher at Wrigley Field since the ballpark was built in 1914. The club previously won 16-straight Lon Warneke starts May 27, 1932-April 18, 1933 (Warneke went 13-0 at home over the span).

The ballpark record for consecutive victories by an individual is 15, set by Bill Lee from September 7, 1935-August 26, 1936 (17 starts).

32 IS THE MAGIC NUMBER

The Cubs have had four starting pitchers make 32 or more starts in a season just three times since 1901. Most recently, the 2007 squad accomplished the feat when Ted Lilly and Carlos Zambrano made 34 starts apiece while Jason Marquis started 33 games and Rich Hill started 32 contests.

Prior to 2007, the last time Chicago had four starters with at least 32 outings apiece was in 1977 when Ray Burris (39), Rick Reuschel (37), Bill Bonham (34) and Mike Krukow (33) turned the trick. In 1975, Reuschel (37), Bonham (36), Burris (35) and Steve Stone (32) teamed up to accomplish the feat.

DOUBLE DOWN

The Cubs hit a club-record 340 doubles in a season twice in club annals – 1931 and 2007. In 2007, the club averaged 2.1 doubles per contest while the 1931 squad averaged 2.2 doubles over the 154-game schedule.

In 2008, three Cubs – Aramis Ramirez (44 doubles), Derrek Lee (41) and Geovany Soto (35) – had 35 or more doubles. It marked the ninth time since 1901 that three Cubs amassed 35 or more doubles in the same season. The 120 doubles between them was tied for the third-highest total of any Cubs threesome (in 2007, Derrek Lee had 43, Alfonso Soriano had 42 and Aramis Ramirez had 35), and the most since the 1932 trio of Riggs Stephenson (49), Charlie Grimm (42) and Billy Herman (42) collected a club-record 133 doubles. In 1930, Kiki Cuyler (50), Woody English (36) and Hack Wilson (35) combined for 121 doubles.

MATT SZCZUR'S CAREER TRANSACTIONS

2010 – Selected by Cubs in fifth round of draft (scout: Tim Adkins)

RUNS SCORED – RUNS ALLOWED

The Cubs mark for scoring in consecutive games is 127, set from June 15, 1958-May 13, 1959. The team record for scoring in consecutive contests in one season is 109, set in 1943 (May 23-September 18).

The longest streak for Cubs pitchers without hurling a shutout is 106 games, set in 1901 (May 18-September 20).

On June 29, 1897, the Cubs scored at least one run in every inning in a 36-7 victory at Louisville. That was the only time in club history that the team scored at least one run in every frame. The last time the Cubs surrendered at least one run in every inning took place May 5, 1999, vs. Colorado at Wrigley Field.

Since 1900, the Cubs have thrown three consecutive shutouts seven times, with the last occurrence taking place July 21-July 24, 1992 – when the Cubs won 1-0 and 3-0 at Cincinnati and 1-0 at Houston.

The last time the Cubs threw shutouts in both games of a doubleheader occurred July 11, 1965, vs. St. Louis at Wrigley Field (identical 6-0 scores).

The Cubs were held scoreless in a National League-record 48 consecutive innings June 15-June 21, 1968. The club was blanked in four straight games June 16-June 20.

The Cubs have allowed three or fewer runs in every contest of a three-game series in each of the last three seasons, including six times in 2012 (most recently September 10-12 at Houston). Prior to 2012, it happened, September 23-25, 2011 at St. Louis (5-1 win, 2-1 loss and 3-2 loss), and September 17-19, 2010 at Florida (2-0 win, 5-3 win and 13-3 win). In fact, that 2010 run was part of an 11-game stretch in which Cubs pitchers allowed three or less runs in each contest from September 10-22.

The last time the Cubs allowed three runs or fewer during a Wrigley Field three-game set occurred May 26-28, 2008 vs. Los Angeles (N.L.) (3-1, 3-1, 2-1 (10)).

From July 5-July 7, 2001, the Cubs scored 38 runs over a three-game span – winning by scores of 13-4 at New York and 15-9 and 10-6 at Detroit. Over the three -game span, the Cubs recorded 50 hits – including 21 for extra bases (12 doubles, four triples, five homers).

In 1930, the Cubs established a team record by reaching the 10-run plateau in five-straight games, June 1-June 6. During that stretch – the only time in club history that the team had a double-digit runs streak surpassing three games – the Cubs defeated Pittsburgh 16-4 on June 1 at Wrigley Field before going on a road trip. They swept the Boston Braves over a three-game span June 3-June 5 by scores of 15-2, 18-10 and 10-7, then went to Brooklyn and beat the Dodgers 13-0 on June 6.

During a 20-1 victory over Los Angeles (N.L.) May 5, 2001, the Cubs scored eight times during both the seventh and eighth innings. This was only the fifth time in major league history that a team plated at least eight runs in consecutive frames. The list:

April 30, 1887: St. Louis (N.L.) vs. Cleveland.....nine in fifth, eight in sixth
June 16, 1887: Philadelphia (N.L.) vs. Washington.....eight in seventh, eight in eighth
May 2, 1901: Boston (A.L.) vs. Philadelphia..... nine in second, 10 in third
July 29, 1928: Cleveland vs. New York..... eight in first, nine in second
May 5, 2001: CUBS vs. Los Angeles.....eight in seventh, eight in eighth

ROBERTO CLEMENTE AWARD

Since 1971, Major League Baseball has annually presented an award that recognizes a player who best exemplifies the game of baseball through sportsmanship, community involvement and positive contributions to his team. In 2012, David DeJesus was recognized as the Cubs recipient for this award.

In 1973, following the tragic death of Roberto Clemente, the award was named to honor the man whose spirit and goodwill will always be remembered. The 12-time All-Star and Hall of Famer was killed in a plane crash in 1972 delivering food and medical supplies to earthquake victims of Nicaragua. The award, sponsored by John Hancock Financial Services, recognizes those individuals who truly understand the value of helping others.

A panel of baseball dignitaries, including Vera Clemente and Commissioner Allan H. (Bud) Selig, annually selects the winner from a list of 30 candidates, one from each Major League Baseball Club. These local winners are announced in September during Roberto Clemente Day. The winner of the national Roberto Clemente Award is announced during a pre-game ceremony at the World Series. Past winners include Craig Biggio, Clayton Kershaw, Jamie Moyer, Jim Thome, Curt Schilling, Al Leiter, Tony Gwynn, Willie Mays, Ozzie Smith, Cal Ripken, Jr., Albert Pujols and Derek Jeter.

SAVE RULE

Rule 10.20 tells the official scorer to credit a pitcher with a save when:
(1) He is the finishing pitcher in a game won by his club, and; (2) he is not the winning pitcher, and; (3) he qualifies under the following conditions: (a) he enters the game with a lead of no more than three runs and pitches for at least 1.0 inning, or; (b) he enters the game with the potential tying run either on base, at bat or on deck, or; (c) he pitches effectively for at least 3.0 innings.

When a relief pitcher enters a game in a save situation and departs or the game ends with the save situation no longer in effect because he has given up the lead, he is charged with a "blown save." If the save opportunity still exists when he leaves the game, he is not charged with a save opportunity.

If the pitcher has not given up the lead when he leaves the game, though the save opportunity may no longer exist because of added runs scored by his own team, he is not charged with a save opportunity.

KKKKKKKKKKKKKKKKKKK

On May 6, 1998, in just his fifth big league start, Kerry Wood fanned 20 Houston Astros and allowed just one base hit in a complete-game 2-0 win at Wrigley Field ... allowed only two baserunners, giving up a single to Ricky Gutierrez in the third inning and hitting Craig Biggio in the sixth.

The 20 strikeouts:

- Tied the major league record for a nine-inning game set by Boston's Roger Clemens (April 29, 1986, and September 18, 1996).
- Eclipsed the National League record of 19 reached by Providence's Charlie Sweeney (June 7, 1884), St. Louis' Steve Carlton (September 15, 1969), New York's Tom Seaver (April 22, 1970) and New York's David Cone (October 6, 1991).
- Exceeded the M.L. rookie record of 18 strikeouts, which had been reached by the Philadelphia Athletics' Jack Coombs on September 1, 1906, and by Montreal's Bill Gullickson (against the Cubs) on September 10, 1980.
- Surpassed the Cubs mark of 17, set by Jack Pfiester in a 15-inning outing May 30, 1906, vs. St. Louis.

His inning-by-inning strikeouts:

- First inning — Craig Biggio (swinging), Derek Bell (swinging), Jeff Bagwell (called)
- Second — Jack Howell (swinging), Moises Alou (swinging)
- Third — Brad Ausmus (swinging)
- Fourth — Bagwell (called), Howell (called)
- Fifth — Alou (called), Dave Clark (called), Ricky Gutierrez (called)
- Sixth — Shane Reynolds (called)
- Seventh — Bagwell (swinging), Howell (swinging), Alou (swinging)
- Eighth — Clark (swinging), Gutierrez (swinging), Ausmus (called)
- Ninth — Bill Spiers (swinging), Bell (swinging)

Kerry opened the game with five straight strikeouts and later had stretches in which he fanned five in a row and seven in a row.

Became just the second pitcher in M.L. history to strike out as many batters as his age ... 17-year-old Cleveland Indians rookie Bob Feller fanned 17 Philadelphia Athletics batters on September 13, 1936.

- The Cubs had 11 players make their big league debut in 2012, their most since 11 players made their big league debut in 2010.

SURE-HANDED: Darwin Barney went an N.L. single-season record 141-straight games without an error at second base from April 18-September 27 ... the streak tied the major league single-season record without an error at second base, previously done by Detroit's Placido Polanco in 2007.

- Barney owns all N.L. records for consecutive errorless games at second base, having surpassed Ryne Sandberg's former record 123-game errorless streak - allowing for multiple seasons - that ran from June 21, 1989-May 17, 1990 ... David Eckstein owned the previous N.L. single-season mark of 113-consecutive games set with San Diego in 2010.
- Barney's 141-game errorless streak featured more total chances per nine innings (5.30) than any other second baseman in baseball ... Barney had far more putouts (293) than any other second baseman in baseball in that span (Gordon Beckham was second at 259) and Barney's 676 total chances trailed only Arizona's Aaron Hill (687).

SORIANO'S RESURGENCE: Alfonso Soriano recorded 32 home runs and 108 RBI in 2012, reaching 30 homers and 100 RBI for the third time in his career and his first time with the Cubs (previously did so with Texas in 2005).

- Soriano's first homer of the season came on May 15 at St. Louis ... his 32 blasts since May 15 ranked tops in the N.L. and second-most in the majors.
- Hit 32 homers in his final 121 games after no homer in his first 30 games - is just the second player in big league history to hit 30 homers despite not hitting a long ball in his first 30 games of the season, joining Boston's Dwight Evans, who did so in 1982.
- Soriano's 108 RBI came at the age of 36 ... he is the first player in franchise history to reach at least 107 RBI at the age of 36 or older ... Ernie Banks had 106 RBI at the age of 38 in 1969 and Moises Alou had 106 RBI at the age of 37 in 2004.

LOFTY CAREER NUMBERS: Alfonso Soriano recorded his 1,000th career RBI on August 18 in Cincinnati (game one), to become one of six players in major league history to reach at least 350 home runs, 400 doubles, 250 stolen bases, 1,000 RBI and 1,000 runs scored, joining Willie Mays, Andre Dawson, Gary Sheffield, Barry Bonds and Alex Rodriguez.

IRONMAN 162: Starlin Castro appeared at shortstop in all 162 of the team's games in 2012, making 161 starts at the position.

- The 161 starts at shortstop are a franchise mark, surpassing the 158 starts at shortstop done by both Ivan DeJesus in 1978 and Don Kessinger in 1968.
- The 162 games played at shortstop is a single-season franchise mark previously held by Ivan DeJesus in both 1978 and 1979 (160 games played).
- Castro is the first Cubs infielder to appear in 162 games in a season since Hall of Famer Ron Santo did so in 1968.
- Castro is the fourth player in the last 10 seasons to have played 162 games at shortstop in a season ... he joins: Baltimore's Miguel Tejada (2003 and 2004), Montreal's Orlando Cabrera (2003) and Philadelphia's Jimmy Rollins (2007).
- Castro finished the 2012 campaign having appeared in 196-consecutive games, the longest active streak in the National League and second-longest in all of baseball, trailing only Detroit's Prince Fielder (343) ... thanks to Elias.

500 CLUB: Starlin Castro, on September 7 in Pittsburgh, gained membership in a very exclusive club as he collected his 500th career major league hit at the age of 22 ... he is only the 28th player in major league history to reach his 500th career hit before turning 23-years-old, with the only other active player being New York's Alex Rodriguez ... Castro turns 23 next March.

- Castro reached the milestone at 22 years, 167 days, the youngest to accomplish the feat since Robin Yount in 1977 at the age of 21 years, 297 days.
- This elite group of 28 players includes the likes of Ted Williams, Hank Aaron, Al Kaline, Mickey Mantle, Jimmie Foxx, Yount, Ty Cobb, Bobby Doerr, Johnny Bench, Orlando Cepeda and Ken Griffey, Jr. among others (thanks to Ed Hartig for his research assistance).
- Since his major league debut on May 7, 2010, Castro leads all National League players with 501 hits ... next closest is Ryan Braun with 492 hits.

ALL-STAR NODS: Shortstop Starlin Castro and first baseman Bryan LaHair were named to the 2012 National League All-Star team ... Castro was named to his second All-Star team, while LaHair earned the first selection of his major league career.

- © The 22-year-old Castro earned his second All-Star honor in as many seasons, as in 2011 he became the youngest player in franchise history to be named to an All-Star team ... he is the first Cubs shortstop to be named to the All-Star team in consecutive seasons since Don Kessinger's five-year run from 1968-72.
- © LaHair is the first Cub to be elected as a first baseman since Derrek Lee in 2007 and only the third Cubs first baseman to make the team in the last 30 years (also Mark Grace).
- © Both Castro and LaHair were voted to the team by way of the player ballot, with Castro winning the vote at shortstop and LaHair finishing second to starter Joey Votto.

COMING UP CLUTCH: After he was recalled from Triple-A Iowa on June 26, Anthony Rizzo recorded three game-winning RBI in his first five games with the Cubs - he's the first player in franchise history to accomplish that feat.

- © Rizzo drove in 48 runs in 87 games following his recall on June 26 ... that led all N.L. rookies in that timeframe ... his 15 home runs since June 26 were second-most among N.L. rookies, trailing only Colorado's Wilin Rosario (17).

CLOSING TIME: Carlos Marmol reached 20 saves in 2012, making him only the fifth pitcher in franchise history with three-straight seasons of 20 or more saves, joining Lee Smith (five straight, 1983-87), Bruce Sutter (four straight, 1977-80), Ryan Dempster (three straight, 2005-07) and Randy Myers (three straight, 1993-95).

- © Marmol converted a career-high 19-straight save opportunities from May 2-September 14, and posted a 0.49 ERA (1 ER/18.1 IP) in those 19 outings.

WORKHORSES: In his first season with the Cubs, reliever Shawn Camp tied for the major league-lead with a career-best 80 appearances in 2012 ... he is just the ninth pitcher in franchise history to reach 80 appearances in a season.

- © Southpaw reliever James Russell recorded career highs with 77 relief appearances and 69.1 innings pitched ... his 77 outings ranked tied for second among N.L. lefty relievers, behind only Randy Choate's 80 appearances for the Marlins and Dodgers.

SCORELESS STREAKS: Ryan Dempster recorded a 33.0-inning scoreless streak, spanning five starts, from June 5-July 14 ... it marked the longest streak by a Cubs starter since Ken Holtzman also tossed 33.0-consecutive scoreless innings in 1969.

- © Travis Wood recorded a 19.2-inning scoreless streak from the third inning, June 19 against the White Sox, to the second inning, July 6 against the Mets ... it marked the longest streak for a Cubs lefty starter since Juan Pizarro's 21.0-inning run in 1971.

CATCH AS CATCH CAN: The Cubs utilized six catchers in 2012, including Welington Castillo, Steve Clevenger, Koyie Hill, Blake Lalli, Anthony Recker and Geovany Soto ... the six catchers used were the most for Chicago since using six backstops in 2007 (Michael Barrett, Henry Blanco, Rob Bowen, Koyie Hill, Jason Kendall and Geovany Soto).

THROW IT BACK: Chicago wore throwback uniforms once in 2012, donning 1912 style road uniforms on June 2 in San Francisco ... the Cubs lost the contest, 2-1, dropping their all-time record when wearing throwback uniforms to 5-1.

ALMOST EVERYTHING IN PLAY: Cubs pitchers, April 27 in Philadelphia, recorded just one strikeout and did not allow a walk ... Chicago's pitchers previously recorded just one strikeout in a game without allowing a walk, June 1, 1985 in a 4-1 win at Houston ... Dennis Eckersley went the distance for Chicago, allowing one run on five hits, striking out one and walking none in 9.0 innings of work.

CHARITABLE CUBS: Chicago Cubs Charities made significant contributions in the community donating over $4.56 million to Chicago area non-profit organizations in 2012.

- © As part of the Ricketts' family mission to participate in the lives of those in the community and to be good neighbors, the Chicago Cubs community efforts reflect an on-going partnership between the Cubs and the people of Chicago ... these efforts include charitable donations, neighborhood protection activities and year-round community service involvement.
- © Chicago Cubs Charities and Cubs Care, a fund of the McCormick Foundation, together granted over $1 million to 51 Chicago area non-profit organizations serving those in need. Over the last 11 years, more than $17 million has been donated to deserving organizations through Cubs Care.
- © On June 16, the Cubs opened a $2 million classroom, Cubs Classroom, at the new Ann and Robert H. Lurie Children's Hospital in downtown Chicago ... Tom, Pete and Laura Ricketts were joined by Cubs Baseball President, Theo Epstein, players Starlin Castro, Adrian Cardenas and Steve Clevenger to open the classroom and visit kids throughout the hospital.
- © Chicago Cubs players and coaches took part in on-field clinics for charitable purposes, spoke to kids at several events, went on seven hospital visits, and went to seven schools in 2012.
- © On October 11, the Cubs and Kerry Wood broke ground on a new high school baseball field located at Lane Tech College Prep High School (about one mile west of Wrigley Field) ... once completed, the baseball field will allow Chicago Public League students to host and play playoff games in the City of Chicago once again as no other field currently is to state standards ... the $5 million stadium is made possible through the donation and support from the Chicago Cubs, Chicago Cubs Charities, Wood Family Foundation, City of Chicago, Chicago Park District, Chicago Public Schools and Turner Construction.
- © The Cubs were able to bring over 121,000 underprivileged children and families, veterans, non-profit organizations, children with special needs and volunteers to Wrigley Field over the course of the season through ticket donations.
- © The Cubs donated more than 5,000 items to charities for fundraising auctions and raffles.
- © Cubs associates participated in more than 100 meetings of community organizations and served on the boards of neighborhood associations, chambers of commerce and non-profit groups.
- © Cubs fundraising events and donations raised more than $3.9 million in 2012 through the 50/50 Raffle and events such as the second-annual Bricks and Ivy Ball, the Race to Wrigley 5K, Wrigley Field Road Tour, Catch in the Confines and two new events, Hot Stove Cool Music Chicago and Picnic for a Purpose.

YOU CAN COME HOME AGAIN

Of the more than 1,800 players who have appeared in at least one game for the Cubs, six have had 10-plus year interruptions in their time with the club:

13 years: Roger Bresnahan (1900 ... 1913-1915) and Johnny Moore (1928-1929, 1931-1932 ... 1945)
12 years: Larry Gura (1970-1973 ... 1985) and Dave Martinez (1986-1988 ... 2000)
11 years: Greg Maddux (1986-1992 ... 2004-2006)
10 years: Lonny Frey (1937 ... 1947)

The longest span between homers for the team belongs to Billy Jurges, who went nine years, 22 days between Cubs homers August 2, 1938, through August 24, 1947 (both homers were hit at the Polo Grounds). Jurges was a Cub from 1931-1938 and in 1946-1947.

IF AT FIRST ...

On June 29, 1937, Cubs first baseman Jimmy Collins set a National League record by not having any fielding chances in the Cubs' 11-9 victory over the Cardinals in St. Louis. Left fielder Augie Galan and catcher Gabby Hartnett each had eight of the Cubs' 27 putouts, followed by second baseman Billy Herman (4), shortstop Billy Jurges (3), center fielder Joe Marty (2), starting right fielder Frank Demaree (1) and substitute right fielder Phil Cavarretta (1). Herman had both Cubs assists in the game on force plays at second base.

The only other N.L. first baseman to accomplish that feat was the Cubs' Fred McGriff – on August 15, 2002, vs. Houston. Catchers Todd Hundley (14) and Joe Girardi (3) recorded 17 of the club's 27 putouts via the strikeout route. Shortstop Alex Gonzalez had the Cubs' only assist on a ninth-inning ground out.

KEEPING THE ROTATION TOGETHER

The Cubs utilized as few as seven starters in a campaign as recently as 2004, when the only pitchers to start for the club were Matt Clement, Greg Maddux, Sergio Mitre, Mark Prior, Glendon Rusch, Kerry Wood and Carlos Zambrano.

Since 1900, the club mark for fewest starters in a season is six – set in 1901. During the 19th century, the team utilized as few as two starters in four seasons, most recently during a 98-game 1883 campaign (Larry Corcoran 53 starts, Fred Goldsmith 45 starts).

GRAND SLAM FACTS AND FIGURES

The Cubs have hit 294 grand slams in franchise history, including three in 2012 after hitting none in 2011 - that was the first time Chicago went a season without a grand slam since 1997.

The Cubs record for grand slams in a season is nine, recorded in 1929 by Hack Wilson (2), Rogers Hornsby (2), Charlie Grimm (2), Riggs Stephenson, Norman McMillan and Kiki Cuyler. McMillan's roundtripper was of the inside-the-park variety.

The club's first grand slam was hit by pitcher Larry Corcoran on June 20, 1882, off Worcester's Lee Richmond at Chicago's Lakefront Park.

The only Cubs to hit more than two grand slams in one season are Ernie Banks (5 in 1955), Wildfire Schulte (4 in 1911) and Sammy Sosa (3 in 1998). Sosa hit grand slams in back-to-back games July 27-July 28 of that season, becoming the first Cub to accomplish that feat.

On June 3, 1987, the Cubs and Houston Astros combined to hit three grand slams — tying a major league single-game record. Two Cubs hit bases-loaded roundtrippers — Brian Dayett (off Bob Knepper) and Keith Moreland (off Julio Solano). Houston's Billy Hatcher hit a grand slam in the contest off Rick Sutcliffe.

On August 16, 1890, Chicago batters Tom Burns and Malachi Kittridge both connected for fifth-inning grand slams off Pittsburgh's Bill Phillips — for the franchise's only multiple grand slam inning.

SEEING DOUBLE

Since the advent of divisional play in 1969, the Cubs have only had one instance in which starting pitchers struck out 10 batters in three straight games. From May 11-13, 1969, Ken Holtzman (vs. San Francisco), Fergie Jenkins (vs. San Diego) and Dick Selma (vs. San Diego) all went the distance — and struck out 10 batters apiece — in consecutive Wrigley Field affairs.

PUTTING ON THE HITS

In 2003, the Cubs recorded 20 hits, July 20 at Florida, and 21 on July 21 at Atlanta — marking the first time since the advent of divisional play that the club had back-to-back 20-hit efforts.

CUBS PITCHING FACTS

The Cubs set a team mark in 2012 by utilizing 30 different pitchers.

The club mark for most left-handed pitchers to see mound action in a season is 10 – a figure reached in both 1999 and 2000. Prior to the 1999 campaign, the team record of eight had stood since 1966.

The team mark for most strikeouts by a reliever is 11, set by Dave Hillman during a 7.2-inning relief stint May 28, 1959, against Los Angeles.

The last Cubs position player to take the mound for the Cubs was third baseman Joe Mather, who saw relief action August 27, 2012 vs. Milwaukee.

Since the advent of divisional play in 1969, the only Cub to record a save in his major league debut was Todd Wellemeyer (May 15, 2003, at Milwaukee).

The last Cubs rookie to hurl consecutive complete games was Rich Hill in 2006 (September 16 vs. Cincinnati, September 22 at Cincinnati).
Hill finished with two complete games in 2006, making him the first Cubs rookie with more than one complete game in a season since Frank Castillo tossed four in 1991.

The best career start record-wise for a Cubs pitcher is 8-0, recorded by King Cole in 1910 and Carlos Silva in 2010. The worst start belongs to Chris Volstad, who began his Cubs career 0-9 in 2012.

On July 17, 1918, Lefty Tyler pitched a Cubs-record 21 innings in a route-going 2-1 win against Philadelphia. He gave up 13 hits and one walk while striking out eight. Three years earlier, on June 17, 1915, reliever George "Zip" Zabel was called into a game against Brooklyn with two out in the top of the 1st inning at West Side Grounds. He had to pitch 18.1 innings before earning the win, as the Cubs won 4-3 in the 19th inning.

The Cubs' top single-season pitchers' batting marks for:

AVG: .350 ..... Percy Jones (1927)
H: 30 ..... Lon Warneke (1930)
HR: 6 ..... Fergie Jenkins (1971)/ Carlos Zambrano (2006)
RBI: 20 ..... Fergie Jenkins (1971)
SH: 19 .... Ryan Dempster (2008)
SO: 55 ..... Don Cardwell (1961)

GOING THE DISTANCE

The last time Cubs pitchers went the distance in three consecutive contests took place during the 1976 campaign — when Rick Reuschel (September 18), Ray Burris (September 19) and Steve Renko (September 21) did the honors.

The last time the Cubs had three straight complete-game shutouts took place in May 1969. Ken Holtzman started the streak May 11 with an 8-0 victory over San Francisco. Fergie Jenkins then blanked San Diego 2-0 on May 12. Dick Selma finished the stretch with a three-hitter in a 19-0 victory over the Padres May 13.

FAN-TASTIC

On April 9, 2003, at Wrigley Field, the Cubs and Montreal combined for 27 strikeouts and no walks. Mark Prior fanned 12 Montreal batters, while Javier Vazquez (14) and Luis Ayala (1) struck out 15 Cubs.

The 27 strikeouts without a walk were the most in any major league nine-inning game.

The National League record for most strikeouts in a nine-inning game is 30. On May 6, 1998, at Wrigley Field, Kerry Wood fanned 20 Houston batters – while Shane Reynolds struck out 10 Cubs in his 8.0 innings of work.

DIGGING OUT OF A HOLE

No Cubs team has ever overcome being more than 10 games below the .500 mark to finish a campaign at .500 or above. The biggest turnaround was 10 games, accomplished in 1968.

The 1968 club was 10 games under .500 twice, most recently on July 5 (35-45). That team finished the year at 84-78.

In 2007, the club was nine games below .500 at 22-31 and finished eight games above .500 at 85-77 to win the N.L. Central title.

Since 1900, there have been two campaigns in which five Cubs pitchers homered in the same year – in 1937 and 1941. The "hammerin' hurlers":

1937: Roy Parmelee 2, Clay Bryant 1, Curt Davis 1, Bill Lee 1, Charlie Root 1.
1941: Claude Passeau 3, Bill Lee 2, Paul Erickson 1, Vern Olsen 1, Charlie Root 1.

Since 1900, the most home runs hit by Cub pitchers in a season is nine – in 1961 (Don Cardwell 3, Bob Anderson 2, Jack Curtis 2, Glen Hobbie 2).

Carlos Zambrano (23) has hit more homers than any other pitcher in Cubs history – ahead of Fergie Jenkins (13), Claude Passeau (12) and Charlie Root (11). Six other hurlers went deep at least six times.

CUBS HOLD MLB RECORD...

The Cubs hold the major league record for consecutive games played (of at least nine innings) without being no-hit ... entering 2013, Chicago has played 7,501 consecutive contests with at least one hit since last being no-hit, September 9, 1965, by the Dodgers Sandy Koufax.

Since Koufax's perfect game, the Cubs have had 22 one-hitters tossed against them, with the last one occurring July 31, 2012 – when Pittsburgh's A.J. Burnett accomplished the feat at Wrigley Field (Adrian Cardenas collected a two-out, pinch-single to right in the bottom of the eighth inning). The last pitcher to take a no-hitter into the ninth inning against the Cubs was Florida's Alex Fernandez – on April 10, 1997 at Wrigley Field (broken up by a Dave Hansen single).

Entering 2013, the Cubs have gone a major league record 47 full seasons since they were last no-hit, surpassing the mark set by the St. Louis Cardinals from 1920 to 1959. According to the Sporting News Complete Baseball Record Book, the American League record is 44 years, accomplished by the New York Yankees from 1959 to 2002.

HISTORICAL INFORMATION

Highlights In Cubs History

1876: The first game in the history of the Chicago National League franchise took place April 25, as Albert Spalding pitched the first N.L. shutout in the Chicago White Stockings' 4-0 win at Louisville ... Spalding also had the first hit in franchise history, while center fielder Paul Hines scored the first run on a throwing error in the second inning.

© The first home run in N.L. history was hit by the White Stockings' Ross Barnes on May 2 in a 15-9 victory in Cincinnati.

© The creation of the N.L. was credited largely to William A. Hulbert, who held the dual role of league president and Chicago president until 1882 ... with the assistance of manager Albert Spalding, Hulbert drafted the N.L. constitution and by-laws in 1875.

© Of the eight original charter members of the National League, only the Cubs have operated continuously in the same city.

1880: The North Siders won 21-straight games, June 2-July 8, including one tie (June 4).

1883: Chicago set major league records when it scored 18 runs and collected 18 hits in September 6's seventh frame ... the Cubs went on to beat Detroit 26-6.

1903: In October, the Cubs and White Sox held the first of the semi-annual "City Series" ... at points from 1903-1942, the two teams met following the regular season for a crosstown set as long as neither team made the Fall Classic.

© In the inaugural year, the Chicago teams ended with seven wins apiece ... what would have been the deciding game was cancelled due to weather.

1906: The Chicago club went 116-36 in setting major league records for wins in a season and winning percentage (.763).

© The Cubs and White Sox met in the first and only all-Chicago Fall Classic ... it also marked the first time two teams from the same city met in the World Series ... the Cubs fell to the White Sox, four games to two.

1907: "Cubs" was officially adopted as the nickname of the team ... the Cubs then went on to win their first World Series, defeating Detroit in five games.

1908: The Cubs were World Series champions for the second straight year, defeating Detroit four games to one.

1911: Frank "Wildfire" Schulte became the first player in the majors to hit at least 20 doubles, 20 triples and 20 homers in a single season.

1916: The Cubs moved into Weeghman Park (now known as Wrigley Field).

1921: William Wrigley Jr. became the Cubs' majority owner.

© Wrigley's involvement with the team began in 1916, when a 10-man syndicate led by Charles Weeghman purchased the club from Charles Taft ... in 1919, Wrigley purchased Weeghman's shares to have controlling interest.

© After Wrigley's death in 1932, his interest passed to his son, Philip K. Wrigley ... upon Philip's death in 1977, principal interest in the ballclub was left to his son, William Wrigley.

© The sale of the club to Tribune Company in 1981 ended the longest continuous operation of a franchise by the same family in one city.

1924: The first Cubs game was broadcast on the radio ... Hal Totten transmitted the April 23 home opener from the Wrigley Field roof ... Chicago routed the Cardinals 12-1 in the contest.

HEY NOW, YOU'RE AN ALL-STAR

Ernie Banks was selected to the National League All-Star team 14 times, the highest total for a Cubs player. Ryne Sandberg ranks second in club history with 10 All-Star appearances (nine starts).

The only Cub to earn Most Valuable Player honors was Bill Madlock, who had a game-winning two-run bases-loaded ninth-inning single off the White Sox's Rich Gossage in the 1975 contest. Madlock shared MVP honors with the New York Mets' Jon Matlack.

Seven Cubs batters have hit All-Star home runs, most recently Alfonso Soriano in the 2007 contest off Seattle's J.J. Putz. The others: Augie Galan (1936 off Detroit's Schoolboy Rowe), Hank Sauer (1952 off Cleveland's Bob Lemon), Ernie Banks (1960 off Boston's Bill Monbouquette), George Altman (1961 off Boston's Mike Fornieles), Billy Williams (1964 off Kansas City's John Wyatt) and Andre Dawson (1991 off Boston's Roger Clemens).

Cubs pitchers have earned five All-Star wins — Bob Rush (1952), Larry Jackson (1963), Bruce Sutter (1978 and 1979) and Lee Smith (1987). Cubs relievers have picked up four saves (Lon Warneke in 1936, Don Elston in 1959, Sutter in 1980 and Randy Myers in 1995). Cubs pitchers have suffered four All-Star losses — Bill Lee (1939), Claude Passeau (1941 and 1946) and Johnny Schmitz (1948).

Passeau is the only Cubs pitcher to start in the All-Star Game, taking the loss in the 1946 Midsummer Classic at Boston's Fenway Park.

The youngest Cubs player to be selected to the N.L. All-Star team and appear in the game was Starlin Castro, who was 21 years old at the 2011 Midsummer Classic in Arizona. The youngest Cubs pitcher to appear in an All-Star Game was 23-year-old Carlos Zambrano (2004).

The oldest Cub to play in an All-Star Game was 38-year-old Ernie Banks, who made his 13th and final All-Star appearance in the 1969 Classic in Washington, DC.

Three Cubs managers have guided the N.L. All-Star team — Charlie Grimm (1936 and 1946), Gabby Hartnett (1939) and Dusty Baker (2003).

Three All-Star Games have been played at Wrigley Field — in 1947, in 1962 and in 1990. The American League won all three games by scores of 2-1, 9-4 and 2-0.

BEAR CUBS

The greatest number of players to make their major league debuts in one season for the Cubs is 20 – in 1902. The high number of youngsters that season was one of the primary reasons why the club was nicknamed the "Cubs." With the raid of National League players by American League teams, many N.L. clubs stocked their spring training rosters with young, unproven players. The Chicago Daily News, noting all the youngsters in the Chicago camp, used the nickname "Cubs" for the first time in its March 27, 1902 edition.

1-0 ... 1-0 ... 1-0 ... 1-0

In 1906, the Cubs participated in four-consecutive 1-0 contests. The Cubs beat Cincinnati 1-0 July 1 at Chicago's West Side Grounds, then fell the next day by the same score. The club then swept an Independence Day doubleheader at Pittsburgh by identical 1-0 scores.

That was part of the Cubs' 1906 club-record stretch of playing nine straight one-run contests June 24-July 4.

PHILLING UP THE SCOREBOARD

On August 25, 1922, the Cubs topped Philadelphia 26-23 at Cubs Park in the highest-scoring game in major league history. The teams combined for 51 hits, 23 walks and 25 men left-on-base. A 10-run second inning followed by a 14-run outburst in the fourth helped the Cubs build a 25-6 lead. Philadelphia fought back and had the bases full when the last out was recorded in the ninth inning.

On May 17, 1979, Dave Kingman hit three homers and drove in six runs, but Philadelphia's Mike Schmidt answered with two homers – including the game-winner in the 10th – to give the Phillies a 23-22 victory in baseball's highest-scoring game since the 1922 affair. The Cubs had trailed 21-9, but rallied and tied the score in the eighth.

THE SANDBERG GAME

On June 23, 1984, Ryne Sandberg went 5-for-6 with two late-inning dramatic homers and seven RBI in the Cubs' 11-inning 12-11 victory over St. Louis.

Sandberg hit a solo homer off the Cardinals' Bruce Sutter in the bottom of the ninth inning to knot the game at 9-9. Then, after St. Louis tallied twice in the top of the 10th, Sandberg once again knotted the game — this time with a two-run shot off Sutter. Following his game-tying homers, the Cubs won it on Dave Owen's RBI single.

"The Sandberg Game" overshadowed the performance of the Cardinals' Willie McGee, who hit for the cycle.

PINCHED BY A PITCHER

On August 11, 2001, San Francisco's Livan Hernandez was the last pitcher to have a four-hit game against the Cubs — going 4-for-4 with a solo homer and three RBI.

On August 8, 2000, Los Angeles pitcher Darren Dreifort hit a pair of homers in a 7-5 victory over the Cubs at Dodger Stadium. Dreifort was just the fourth pitcher to record a multi-homer game against the Cubs, joining Cincinnati's Frank Foreman (July 4, 1895), the Boston Braves' Jim Tobin — who hit three homers (May 13, 1942) — and the New York Mets' Walt Terrell (August 6, 1983).

1984 NLCS: Padres Defeated Cubs 3-2

The Cubs advanced into post-season play for the first time since 1945 after winning the National League Eastern Division title with a 96-65 record ... the Cubs then won the first two games of the NLCS at Wrigley Field before dropping the final three contests in San Diego.

- © The Cubs hit five homers and had 16 hits in routing the Padres 13-0 in Game One, as winning pitcher Rick Sutcliffe allowed two hits in 7.0 innings and homered ... behind Steve Trout, the Cubs then won the second game 4-2.
- © San Diego routed the Cubs in Game Three, then won the fourth game 7-5 behind Steve Garvey's five-RBI contest.
- © In the decisive fifth game, Leon Durham's two-run homer and Jody Davis' solo shot gave the Cubs a 3-0 lead entering the bottom of the sixth inning ... San Diego, though, scored twice in the sixth and four times in the seventh to advance to the World Series.

2003 NLDS: Cubs Defeated Braves 3-2

SERIES NUMBERS
Cubs Batting: .257, 8 doubles, 4 homers
Cubs Pitching: 3.07 ERA
Top Cubs Batters: Moises Alou – .500, 3 RBI ... Eric Karros – .375, 2 homers, 2 RBI
Top Cubs Pitchers: Kerry Wood – 2-0, 1.76 ERA ... Mark Prior – 1-0, 1.00 ERA

For the first time since winning the 1908 World Series, the Cubs were victorious in a postseason series ... as such, the Cubs qualified for their first trip to the National League Championship Series since 1989.

- © The affair was only the third "final and decisive" post-season contest in Cubs history ... the club had dropped Game Seven of the 1945 World Series to Detroit and Game Five of the 1984 NLCS to San Diego.
- © With two victories, Kerry Wood became the first Cub to pick up a pair of wins in a post-season series since Hank Borowy in the 1945 World Series ... he fanned 18 batters in the two starts, surpassing the club-record 17 recorded by Hippo Vaughn in the 1918 World Series ... in the series-opening 4-2 victory, he had two hits – and drove in the game-winning run with a two-run double in the Cubs four-run sixth inning.
- © In Game Three (a 3-1 Cubs win), Mark Prior went the distance – allowing two hits while fanning seven ... he was the first Cubs pitcher to throw a complete game in the postseason since Claude Passeau accomplished the feat in Game Three of the 1945 World Series ... in the process, he also became the second hurler to throw a two-hitter in a Division Series affair, joining Nolan Ryan (October 6, 1981).

2003 NLCS: Marlins Defeated Cubs 4-3

Five outs – that's all that stood between the Cubs 3-0 lead in Game Six and their first trip to the Fall Classic since 1945 ... before two of those outs could be recorded, Florida stunned the Cubs with an eight-run eighth-inning rally.

- By the time the fateful eighth was over, the Marlins had sent 12 batters to the plate ... the eight runs were the most in an NLCS inning since St. Louis plated nine in the second inning October 13, 1985, against Los Angeles.
- There was another day for the Cubs, however ... in Game Seven, they found themselves down 3-0 early before rallying to tie the score in the bottom of the second – including a two-run shot by Kerry Wood ... his roundtripper was just the fourth by a pitcher in NLCS history – and the first since the Cubs Rick Sutcliffe went deep in Game One of the 1984 NLCS vs. San Diego ... the Cubs then went ahead 5-3 in the third inning on Moises Alou's two-run homer ... from that point, though, the Cubs were held to just one hit – a Troy O'Leary pinch homer in the seventh off Josh Beckett – as the Marlins pushed across six runs from the fifth through seventh innings.
- In the process, the Marlins became the fourth team in League Championship Series history to overcome a three-games-to-one deficit in advancing to the World Series.

WALKING OFF TO APPLAUSE

The last time the Cubs won consecutive contests with walkoff homers took place September 12-September 13, 1998, when Orlando Merced and Mark Grace hit game-ending shots against Milwaukee.

2007 NLDS: Diamondbacks Defeated Cubs 3-0

SERIES NUMBERS
Cubs Batting: .194, 3 doubles, 1 homer
Cubs Pitching: 5.76 ERA
Top Cubs Batters: Mark DeRosa – .333 ... Daryle Ward – .500, 2 RBI
Top Cubs Pitchers: Carlos Zambrano – 0-0, 1.50 ERA (6.0 IP) ... Bob Howry – 0-0, 0.00 ERA (3.0 IP)

In the team's first post-season appearance since 2003, the Cubs were swept by the Arizona Diamondbacks, three-games-to-none, in the National League Division Series ... Chicago batted just .194 (19-for-98) in the series with six runs scored ... Chicago batted just .087 (2-for-23) with runners in scoring position while Geovany Soto hit the club's lone home run - a two-run blast in Game Two off Arizona's Doug Davis.

- Soto's long ball made him just the second Cubs rookie to ever homer in a post-season contest ... previously, Cubs rookie Frank Demaree homered off the Yankees Johnny Allen on October 2, 1932, in the fourth game of the 1932 World Series at Wrigley Field..
- The Cubs dropped Game One, 4-1, as Carlos Zambrano went up against Arizona's Brandon Webb ... the game was tied 1-1 before the Diamondbacks scored two runs off Carlos Marmol in the seventh.
- Chicago enjoyed its only lead of the series when Soto's two-run homer in the second inning of Game Two at Chase Field gave the Cubs an early 2-0 ... Arizona rebounded for four runs in the bottom half of the inning and would hold the lead for the remainder of the game.
- In Game Three, the Diamondbacks touched Rich Hill for three runs in 3.0 innings of work as Chicago went 0-for-9 with runners in scoring position.

2008 NLDS: Dodgers Defeated Cubs 3-0

SERIES NUMBERS
Cubs Batting: .240, 8 doubles, 1 homer
Cubs Pitching: 5.19 ERA
Top Cubs Batters: Derrek Lee – .545, 3 doubles ... Mark DeRosa – .333, 2 doubles, 4 RBI, 1 homer
Top Cubs Pitchers: Neal Cotts – 0-0, 0.00 ERA (1.2 IP) ... Sean Marshall – 0-0, 2.70 ERA (1 ER/3.1 IP)

After leading the National League with 97 wins, the Cubs were swept out of the National League Division Series, three-games-to-none, for the second straight season ... Chicago starters compiled a 5.87 ERA (10 ER/15.1 IP) ... Ryan Dempster issued a career-high seven free passes in Game One's 7-2 setback.

- Derrek Lee extended his post-season hitting streak to six games with a 3-for-4 Game Three performance ... hit at a .545 clip (6-for-11) with three doubles and two runs scored on the series.
- Mark DeRosa gave the Cubs their only lead of the series with a one-out, two-run homer in the second inning of Game One ... the Dodgers responded with seven unanswered runs, highlighted by James Loney's fifth-inning grand slam.
- Carlos Zambrano struggled in Game Two, surrendering seven runs (three earned) in the Dodgers' 10-3 victory ... Los Angeles posted five runs in the second frame and never looked back ... the Cubs committed four errors in the game, one-shy of matching their post-season record (5).
- A two-run double by Loney in the first inning proved to be all the offense the Dodgers needed in Game Three ... pinch-hitter Daryle Ward singled in Lee for the Cubs lone run in the 3-1 loss.

WRIGLEY FIELD INFORMATION

History of Wrigley Field

Wrigley Field, which was built in 1914, is playing host to professional baseball for the 100th season in 2013 – and to the Cubs for the 98th year. Wrigley Field is the second-oldest ballpark in the major leagues behind Boston's Fenway Park (1912).

© The Friendly Confines has been the location of such historic moments as:
- Babe Ruth's "called shot," when Ruth allegedly pointed to a bleacher location during Game 3 of the 1932 World Series ... Ruth then hit Charlie Root's next pitch for a homer.
- Gabby Hartnett's famous "Homer in the Gloamin' " September 28, 1938, off Pittsburgh's Mace Brown.
- The great May 2, 1917, pitching duel between Jim "Hippo" Vaughn and the Reds' Fred Toney ... both Vaughn and Toney threw no-hitters for 9.0 innings before Cincinnati's Jim Thorpe (of Olympic fame) drove in the only run in the 10th inning ... Toney finished with a no-hitter.
- Ernie Banks' 500th career home run May 12, 1970, vs. Atlanta's Pat Jarvis.
- Pete Rose's 4,191st career hit, which tied him with Ty Cobb for the most hits in baseball history ... Rose singled off Reggie Patterson September 8, 1985.
- Kerry Wood's 20-strikeout affair in 1998.
- Sammy Sosa's 60th home runs in 1998, 1999 and 2001.
- Greg Maddux's 3,000th career strikeout July 26, 2005.
- Tom Glavine's 300th career victory August 5, 2007.
- The 1947, 1962 and 1990 All-Star Games.

Originally known as Weeghman Park, Wrigley Field was built on the grounds once occupied by a seminary.

© Weeghman Park was the home of Chicago's entry in the Federal League and was the property of Charles H. Weeghman ... the club was known as both the Federals and the Whales.

© The cost of building Weeghman Park, which had a seating capacity of 14,000, was estimated at $250,000 ... the infield and outfield consisted of more than 4,000 yards of soil and four acres of bluegrass.

© The first major league game at the ballpark took place April 23, 1914, with the Federals defeating Kansas City 9-1 ... the first homer in ballpark history was hit by Federals catcher Art Wilson – a two-run shot in the second inning off Kansas City's Chief Johnson.

© When the Federal League folded for financial reasons after the 1915 campaign, Weeghman purchased the Cubs from the Taft family of Cincinnati and moved the club to the two-year-old ballpark at the corner of Clark and Addison streets.

© The first National League game at the ballpark was played April 20, 1916, when the Cubs beat the Cincinnati Reds 7-6 in 11 innings ... a bear cub was in attendance at the game.

© The park became known as Cubs Park in 1920 after the Wrigley family purchased the team from Weeghman ... it was named Wrigley Field in 1926 in honor of William Wrigley Jr., the club's owner.

The original vines were purchased and planted by Bill Veeck in September 1937 ... Veeck strung bittersweet from the top of the wall to the bottom, then planted the ivy at the base of the wall.

The Wrigley Field bleachers and scoreboard were constructed in 1937 when the outfield area was renovated to provide improved and expanded seating ... the original scoreboard remains intact.

© The score-by-innings and the pitchers' numbers are changed by hand ... the numbers signaling batter, ball, strike and out, along with "H" and "E" – to signify hit and error – are eyelets.

© No batted ball has ever hit the center field scoreboard ... two baseballs barely missed – a homer hit onto Sheffield Avenue (right-center) by Bill Nicholson in 1948, and one hit by Roberto Clemente onto Waveland Avenue (left-center) in 1959.

© One of the traditions of Wrigley Field is the flying of a flag bearing a "W" or an "L" atop the scoreboard after a game ... a white flag with a blue "W" indicates a victory; a blue flag with a white "L" denotes a loss.

Wrigley Field added lights in 1988.

© The first night game took place August 8 against Philadelphia, but was rained out in the fourth inning.

© The first official night game occurred August 9 vs. New York, when the Cubs defeated the Mets 6-4.

© In 2013, Wrigley Field will be celebrating its 26th year of playing host to baseball under the lights.
- The Cubs entered the 2013 season having played 508 home night contests (going 254-254).

Wrigley Field has been the site of numerous construction projects since 1981.

© New office space was created and old offices refurbished in the administrative area behind home plate in 1981-1982, while the ticket office was built directly behind home plate in 1983.

© During the winter of 1984, a new home clubhouse was completed under the third base stands ... the visitors' clubhouse was renovated in 1990.

© In 1989, private boxes were constructed on the mezzanine level, formerly occupied by the press box and broadcast booths ... a press box and broadcast booths were constructed in the upper deck directly behind home plate ... other improvements included a food court in the upper deck.
- Following renovations in 1994 and 1995, there are 61 private boxes.

© An elevator was added to the third base concourse in 1996.

© Following the 2005 season, the Cubs expanded the bleachers, adding a restaurant in the batter's eye and a window to Sheffield Avenue in right field.

© In the winter of 2007, Wrigley underwent a major field renovation project to remove the field's crown, install an intricate drainage system underneath and create a new playing surface.

© The beautification of the Wrigley Field campus also included the installation of personalized pavers beginning near the corner of Sheffield and Addison, running down Addison Street towards Clark Street and the Wrigley Field marquee.

© Prior to the 2010 season, the back of the centerfield scoreboard was fully renovated for the first time since it was installed in 1937 ... restrooms were remodeled and fitted with new fixtures ... a new viewing plaza was created adjacent to the indoor batting cage to provide fans the opportunity to watch batting practice, and the PNC Club was added to the mezzanine suites down the left field line.

© Prior to the 2012 campaign, the right field bleachers were transformed to the Budweiser Patio ... the area provides fans with a rooftop experience inside the ballpark, and adds a 75-foot LED board just above the right field fence.

SPRING INFORMATION

Mesa — HoHoKam Stadium

Spring Training 2013 will mark the 35th consecutive spring training that the Cubs have spent in Mesa ... this will be the 17th, and final, Spring Training at the HoHoKam Stadium/Fitch Park facilities as the team will move to a new facility by the 101 and 202 interchange in Mesa prior to Spring Training of 2014 ... in 2012, the club was 17-16-2 during the Cactus League campaign.

- HoHoKam Stadium is operated by the city of Mesa with assistance from the HoHoKams, a local service organization.
- Mesa is the second-largest city in the Phoenix metropolitan area and the third-largest city in Arizona ... Mesa is located southeast of Phoenix and Scottsdale.
  - With a population of more than 440,000, Mesa ranks as one of the fastest growing cities in the United States (among those with populations of at least 200,000) and the 38th-largest city in the country — bigger than Atlanta and Miami.
  - Mesa was founded in January 1878 and was incorporated in July 1883 ... the area of the city is 128 square miles.
- The telephone number for the Mesa Convention and Visitors Bureau is 1-800-283-MESA.

The Cubs began play at the new HoHoKam Stadium in 1997.

- New HoHoKam Stadium has a seating capacity of 13,100 ... there are 8,036 fixed seats; 2,096 seats in the outfield bleachers and 2,538 seats in the outfield lawn ... in addition, there are 80 skybox seats, 120 seats in the third base patio section and 230 seats in the Budweiser tent located in right field.
- The stadium dimensions are:

340 feet down the left field line
350 feet down the right field line
410 feet to straight-away center field
390 feet to the power alleys

- The batter's eye in center field is 80 feet wide by 40 feet high ... the outfield fence is 15 feet, four inches high.
- New HoHoKam Stadium also has a practice field, a practice infield, four batting tunnels, bi-level bullpens in right-centerfield and a 13,955-square foot clubhouse ... the facility, which includes paved and grass parking for 3,000 cars, was built on a 48.45-acre site.
